Four Steps To English | Four Steps to Death- Alex, Daniel ... In the novel "Four steps to death" by John Wilson we can identify many themes including: death, love, family, patriotism, the difference between right and wrong, being human and others. However, in my opinion there is one theme that bundles up all the others together in a nice way and is the main theme for the entire book, war.

Four Steps to Death | Quill and Quire Four Steps to Death is a thoroughly anti-war war novel. The occasionally glib tone and clichéd or overly expository dialogue in the book's first half are more than made up for by the dark, visceral, and pessimistic tone of the second, wherein Wilson shows just how miserable and futile the practice of war is for those who must fight it.
